An Ordinance of the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, For punishing imprest Souldiers that runne away from their Colours.

Hereas divers men who have beeene lately leavied and imprest for Souldiers within the severall Countys of Essex, Kent, Middlesex, Suffex, Surry, Suffolke, Norfolke, Hertford, Huntington, Isle of Ely, Cambridge, Bedford, and withia the Cities of London, Westminster, Norwich, and Canterbury, for the recruiting of the Army under the Command of Sir Thomas Fairfax, after such time as they have received Prest-money, daily runne away and depart from their Colours to the great prejudice of the publike Service; and unlesse some timely course be taken therein, it may incourage others that are necessary to be imprest for the service of that Army to doe the like: For the due punishment of such as have, or shall hereafter runne away being imprest for that Army, It is Ordained, and be it Ordained by the Lords and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, That the respective Committees and Deputy-Lieutenants of the Cities and Counties by whom and where any persons shall be imprest for the said Army, or any foure of them, calling to their assistance the Officers of the Militia or trained Bands of the said respective Counties and Cities, whereof none to be under the degree of a Captaine, or so many of such Officers as together with the said Committees and Deputy-Livetenants or any four of them, shall make the number of twelve in all, or more, upon complaint made, or notice given unto them or any of them, of any person that having been imprest to serve the Parliament by virtue of, and according to the Ordinance of Parliament in that behalfe made, shall after his being so imprest run away, the said Committees and Deputy Livetenants and Officers aforesaid, or any twelve or more of them respectively, four whereof shall be either of the said Committees or Deputy-Livetenants, shall have power, and are hereby authorized to meet together in any Market-Towne in some publike place thereof openly, and not in private, to examine, heare, and determine the said Offences within the Cities and Counties respectively whereof they are Committees or Deputy-Livetenants: And upon proofe of any such Offence by Confession, or two Witnesses upon Oath, to proceed to the Condemnation and Execution of all such person and persons as shall offend as aforesaid, and to inflict upon them such punishment, either by death or by other corporal punishment as the said respective Committees, Deputy-Livetenants, and Officers aforesaid, or the major part of them there present, shall adjudge to appertaine to Justice. And the said respective Committees, Deputy-Livetenants, and Assistants aforesaid, or any twelve or more of them, four whereof shall be of the number of the Deputy-Livetenants or Committees, are hereby likewise authorized to minister corporall Oathes to all Witnesses, and them to examine upon Oath either before or at the Trials as the cases may require, and the said Committees, and Deputy-Livetenants respectively, or any two or more of them, are hereby enabled to send their Warrents for any Delinquents or Witnesses, the said Witnesses being not Peers of this Realme, nor assistants, nor Officers of the House of Peers, nor Members, nor Officers of the House of Commons, into any place whatsoever, and commit to Prison all such as shall be refractory, or misbehave themselves; and the said respective Committees, Deputy-Livetenants and and assistants, are hereby enjoyned to proceed with all diligence in putting this Ordinance in execution, and have hereby power to appoint a Provost-Marshall, and other Officers conduced to the ends and purposes aforesaid. And it is hereby further Ordained, That all Mayors, Bayliffes, Sherifffes, Justices of Peace and other inferiour Officers whatsoever, shall be aiding and assisting to the said Committees, Deputy-Lieutenants, and assistants in the execution of the premises, and that the said Commissioners, Officers, and assistants, and every of them, and all and every other person and persons that shall be ayding and assisting to them in the execution of the premises shall be protected, and for ever saved harmelesse by the authosity and power of both Houses of Parliaiment.

And it is lastly provided, that this present Ordinance, and the authority hereby given, shall indure and have continuance for nine Moneths from the making hereof and no longer.

17. Die Ianuarii, 1645.

Orasmuch as the true Protestant Religion, the Lawes and Liberties of the Subjects, and the Parliament are in danger to be subverted, Idolatry, and Tyrany like to be introduced by the Force and power of severall Armies rayfed by pretence of the Kings authority, consisting of Papists and other dangerous and ill affected Persons of this Kingdome, and Irish Rebels and of divers popish souldiers or others of foraigne Kingdomes and Nations, being not under the Kings obedience, for the ruine and destruction of this Kingdome, unlesse the same be prevented by a considerable Power of Forces to be suddenly rayfed by both Houses of Parliament, being with Gods blessing and assistance the most probable way to preserve this Kingdome, our Religion and Libertie.

Be it therefore Ordained by the Lords and Commons assembled in Parliament, and by the Authoritie of the same, That the Committee of the Militia, for the Citie of London within the said Citie, and the Liberties thereof, and the Committee of the Militia of London by themselves, or their severall sub-Committees respectively within the Lynes of Communication the Deputy-Lieutenants and Committees of Parliament in every Countie, Citie, or Place within this Realme, or any two, or more of them within their severall Limits and Jurisdictions, shall and are hereby Authorized, and are hereby by required, and enjoyned from time to time to Rayse, Levy, and Imprest such number of Souldiers, Gunners, and Chirurgions for the defence of the Parliament and Kingdome, as shall be appointed by both Houses of Parliament, by the Members of both Houses, that are of the Committee of both Kingdomes, or any six of them, or by Sir Thomas Fairfax, And to command all Constables and other Officers to be ayding and assisting to them in the said service of Impresting; All which Persons so to be Imprested, and every of them shall have such Imprest Money, Coat, and Conduct money, Wages, and entertainment, and other necessary charges, and allowances as shall be fit and convenient, according to the discretion of the Committees, and Deputy-Lieutenants, or any two or more of them respectively; And if any Person or persons shall wilfully refuse so to be Imprested for the said service, that then it shall and may be lawfull to and for the said persons so authorized as aforesaid, to commit them to Prison, untill they shall yeld obedience to pay the summe of ten pounds to the said Committee or Deputy-Lieutenants, to be employed for the supply of the said service.

Provided alwayes that this Ordinance shall not extend to the Preffing of any Clergy-man, Scholler, or Student in any the Universities, Inns of Court, or Chancery, or Houses of Law, or any the Trained bands, in any County, City, or Place, or of any Person Rated in the last Subsidies, granted by Parliament, or the Sonne of any Person Rated at five pounds Goods, or three pounds Lands, in the Subsidie booke, or of any Person of the rank or degree of an Esquire or upwards, or the sonne of any such Person, or the son of the Widow of any such Person, or to the Preffing of any Person under the age of eighteene, or above the Age of fiftie, or of the Members, or Officers of either House of Parliament, or of the Meniall Servants of the Peeres of the Kingdome, or Members of the House of Commons, or Officers of either of the said Houses, or any of the Assistants or Attendants of the the Lords House, or any of their Meniall Servants, or any the Inhabitants of the Isle of Wight, or Cinque-Ports, or of any Marriner, Seaman, Shipwright, or any of their Apprentices, Waterman, or Fisherman, or any Officer employed in the Office of Excize, or in the Office of Customes for Tunnage, or Poundage.

Provided, that this Ordinance shall continue and bee in force for the space of six moneths from the Date hereof and no longer.

Provided also, And be it Ordained by the Authority aforesaid, That this Ordinance shall not extend unto the Impresting of Jurors, Solicitors, Attorneys, or their Meniall Servants, employed in Law-suits, Witneses, or Parties having necessary occasions to attend their Suits: But that such Persons upon a Certificate from the Commissioners of the great Seal of England, or the Justices of either Bench, or the Barrons of the Exchequer, or any of them, shall bee discharged and freed.
